

Improving Practice for people with a Learning Disability who are Lesbian, Gay or Bisexual with guest speakers Paul Cambridge, Joyce Howarth, James Taylor

The conference aims to:

- Raise awareness of the needs of LGB people with learning disabilities
- Address how to improve practice, including sharing best practice examples
- Facilitate setting up networks for interested people
- Consider how to involve LGB people with a learning disability following the conference

When: 16th October 10am to 4pm
Where: Friends Meeting House, Euston, London
Who: Professionals, commissioners, managers and other workers
Cost: £75.00 with lunch included. Some concessions are available - see booking form for details

For more information, contact Kirsty Pentecost at kirsty.pentecost@oxleas.nhs.uk or call 020 8319 7109.

Hidden desires?