

INTRO TO LGBTQ+ INCLUSION IN SPORT WORKSHOP

1.5 hours - Intro to LGBTQ+ inclusion in sport (£550 +VAT)

What?

The workshop provides:

- The skills to create immediate and lasting impact to build inclusive environments
- Relevant training, developed by experts in LGBTQ+ inclusion and sport
- Personal and professional development delivered online in a safe, accessible format

The programmes will explore:

- LGBT experiences and barriers LGBT+ people face in sport and everyday life
- Tools on how to tackle homophobic, biphobic, transphobic and acephobic language in sport
- How to build sustainably positive environments via our 'Everyday Inclusion' model
- Scenario practice with real-life examples in sports
- Practical action planning for building and sustaining an inclusive club

When?

Workshops are 1.5 hours each (including a break) and are delivered online on Zoom. We'll work with you to find a date that suits you, and you can choose between day and evening sessions.

How?

The workshops are aimed everyone, at any level within your organisation/sports club. Whether that be internal staff or volunteers.

The sessions are for people of all identities, and we start every session with a safe environment exercise. The format can accommodate from 10 to 50 participants per session.

Stonewall

